Dear Mum & I got line. family & respective spouses. I expect everyone is feeling fit & well & at home I sincerely hope so. By this time Jean will be settling in her new abode. What did you think of my little speech? Possibly that little court episode jolted you to a different point of view of things. Frank & Charlie managed up for a short chat after my exit. I should like if you posted on a commentary to Mrs Fairbairn and, safely returned your copy till I join you. Have you any information about Jimmy? So far I have not seen Sam. Small wonder however, since this place is so large. By now, I am thoroughly acclimatised to this place & am feeling fine. The food is quite good and in sufficient quantity for me. I work around 4 or 5 hrs per day, sewing & mended
